

UTAH—Fair and warmer tonight; Sunday fair; Monday probably fair.

Fiftieth Year—No. 210

Price Five Cents

TRAINING OF BIG GUIG HEARD IN WARSAW

OLYMPIC ATHLETES PASS IN REVIEW

BRAWN OF 30 NATIONS READY FOR CONTESTS

GREAT VARIETY OF EVENTS OPEN SUNDAY

Flags of Enemy Nations Absent At Formal Opening of Big Stadium

ANTWERP, Aug. 14.—The re-statement of Dan Ahern, of the Illinois A. C., dismissed yesterday from the American Olympic team on charges of insubordination, was announced this noon.

Ahern apologized this morning in the presence of both the American committee and the Polish committee, and he was restored to his former standing on the team, closing the incident.

ANTWERP, Aug. 14.—The Olympic stadium was opened today. It was a formal ceremony, staged with a setting of flags, banners and cheering pennants against a background of white stone, cement and wood, with royalty, officialdom, diplomacy, fame and fashion participating in the program or represented in the boxes. But the thousands of spectators packed about the huge oval centered their interest in the actual contestants—athletes from nearly thirty nations who paraded the arena and tomorrow will begin their tests of strength and skill.

The spectators were as cosmopolitan as the mass of contestants and in the families of the athletes were citizens of all the countries whose flags, flying from official, diplomatic or consular headquarters, made the scene a colorful hodgepodge like a warship decked out with all her pennants.

TWO FLAGS ABSENT.

Two flags, the German and Austrian, which flew over the stadium in the sixth Olympiad at Stockholm, were missing and, these countries, barred from participating in the meet, as were all enemies of the entente powers in the war, had no representation either in the arena or in the diplomatic boxes. The Russian flag, also, was missing. In their places, however, were the athletes and flags of nations newborn of the war, Poland and Czechoslovakia, the latter replacing Bohemia, whose athletes, though then listed separately, had to march just behind the Austrians at Stockholm.

The formal ceremonies of opening the stadium included addresses by the king of the Belgians, who officially presented the stadium, and by the Belgian or Antwerp city government and by a number of other officials of the International Olympic committee and by a number of other officials of the Belgian or Antwerp city government.

There was also tremendously impressive singing by a Belgian choral society.

CONTINUOUS CHEERING.

The cheering was continuous as the athletes, filing in from the open space just back of the stadium where they had formed, nation by nation, swarmed into the arena headed by the members of the International Olympic committee. They marched in alphabetical order, though the Belgians, alphabetically first in the list, took last place, courtesy of the hosts. This brought Australia first in line behind the official committee.

Each group was preceded by its flag and national sports equipment. The group of nations was uniformly dressed—not in athletic frocks, but in suits of uniform cut and color. Some, however, were in military uniforms. As they swung by the royal box, where King Albert, Prince Leopold and a group of government officials were standing, they saluted the king. Some of the athletes paid similar courtesy to the ambassadors or ministers of their nations, who had boxes all around the arena.

AMERICAN CHECKED.

The American athletes, about 300 strong, were cheered frequently not only by their compatriots in the stands, but by the throngs who recognized that the group marching behind the stars and stripes were among the strong contenders for victory in the seventh Olympiad.

It seemed that there were thousands of Americans in the stands. Every soldier from the army of occupation on the Rhine who could possibly secure leave was there in khaki. Jackies from the cruiser, Frederick, sailors from the American merchant and passenger liners in the harbor and hundreds upon hundreds of tourists swelled the delegation from across the Atlantic until, in some parts of the stadium, at least, it seemed to be a regular American crowd. The Belgians, of course, and also the French and English appeared to be out in force.

STADIUM DESCRIBED.

The stadium is something more than three miles from the center business district of Antwerp and is reached by street railway and steam railway lines. It has been built of stone, concrete, steel and wood, with an impressive arched main entrance. Its total capacity for spectators is estimated at 20,000. It, like the tracks it encloses, is oval in shape. On two sides there are roofed grandstands, where are located the boxes and reserved seats. At the two ends of the

Dismissed American Athlete Reinstated After Ousting By Committee

GREAT VARIETY OF EVENTS OPEN SUNDAY

Flags of Enemy Nations Absent At Formal Opening of Big Stadium

ANTWERP, Aug. 14.—The re-statement of Dan Ahern, of the Illinois A. C., dismissed yesterday from the American Olympic team on charges of insubordination, was announced this noon.

Ahern apologized this morning in the presence of both the American committee and the Polish committee, and he was restored to his former standing on the team, closing the incident.

ANTWERP, Aug. 14.—The Olympic stadium was opened today. It was a formal ceremony, staged with a setting of flags, banners and cheering pennants against a background of white stone, cement and wood, with royalty, officialdom, diplomacy, fame and fashion participating in the program or represented in the boxes. But the thousands of spectators packed about the huge oval centered their interest in the actual contestants—athletes from nearly thirty nations who paraded the arena and tomorrow will begin their tests of strength and skill.

ANTWERP, Aug. 14.—The Olympic stadium was opened today. It was a formal ceremony, staged with a setting of flags, banners and cheering pennants against a background of white stone, cement and wood, with royalty, officialdom, diplomacy, fame and fashion participating in the program or represented in the boxes. But the thousands of spectators packed about the huge oval centered their interest in the actual contestants—athletes from nearly thirty nations who paraded the arena and tomorrow will begin their tests of strength and skill.

ANTWERP, Aug. 14.—The Olympic stadium was opened today. It was a formal ceremony, staged with a setting of flags, banners and cheering pennants against a background of white stone, cement and wood, with royalty, officialdom, diplomacy, fame and fashion participating in the program or represented in the boxes. But the thousands of spectators packed about the huge oval centered their interest in the actual contestants—athletes from nearly thirty nations who paraded the arena and tomorrow will begin their tests of strength and skill.

ANTWERP, Aug. 14.—The Olympic stadium was opened today. It was a formal ceremony, staged with a setting of flags, banners and cheering pennants against a background of white stone, cement and wood, with royalty, officialdom, diplomacy, fame and fashion participating in the program or represented in the boxes. But the thousands of spectators packed about the huge oval centered their interest in the actual contestants—athletes from nearly thirty nations who paraded the arena and tomorrow will begin their tests of strength and skill.

ANTWERP, Aug. 14.—The Olympic stadium was opened today. It was a formal ceremony, staged with a setting of flags, banners and cheering pennants against a background of white stone, cement and wood, with royalty, officialdom, diplomacy, fame and fashion participating in the program or represented in the boxes. But the thousands of spectators packed about the huge oval centered their interest in the actual contestants—athletes from nearly thirty nations who paraded the arena and tomorrow will begin their tests of strength and skill.

ANTWERP, Aug. 14.—The Olympic stadium was opened today. It was a formal ceremony, staged with a setting of flags, banners and cheering pennants against a background of white stone, cement and wood, with royalty, officialdom, diplomacy, fame and fashion participating in the program or represented in the boxes. But the thousands of spectators packed about the huge oval centered their interest in the actual contestants—athletes from nearly thirty nations who paraded the arena and tomorrow will begin their tests of strength and skill.

ANTWERP, Aug. 14.—The Olympic stadium was opened today. It was a formal ceremony, staged with a setting of flags, banners and cheering pennants against a background of white stone, cement and wood, with royalty, officialdom, diplomacy, fame and fashion participating in the program or represented in the boxes. But the thousands of spectators packed about the huge oval centered their interest in the actual contestants—athletes from nearly thirty nations who paraded the arena and tomorrow will begin their tests of strength and skill.

ANTWERP, Aug. 14.—The Olympic stadium was opened today. It was a formal ceremony, staged with a setting of flags, banners and cheering pennants against a background of white stone, cement and wood, with royalty, officialdom, diplomacy, fame and fashion participating in the program or represented in the boxes. But the thousands of spectators packed about the huge oval centered their interest in the actual contestants—athletes from nearly thirty nations who paraded the arena and tomorrow will begin their tests of strength and skill.

ANTWERP, Aug. 14.—The Olympic stadium was opened today. It was a formal ceremony, staged with a setting of flags, banners and cheering pennants against a background of white stone, cement and wood, with royalty, officialdom, diplomacy, fame and fashion participating in the program or represented in the boxes. But the thousands of spectators packed about the huge oval centered their interest in the actual contestants—athletes from nearly thirty nations who paraded the arena and tomorrow will begin their tests of strength and skill.

ANTWERP, Aug. 14.—The Olympic stadium was opened today. It was a formal ceremony, staged with a setting of flags, banners and cheering pennants against a background of white stone, cement and wood, with royalty, officialdom, diplomacy, fame and fashion participating in the program or represented in the boxes. But the thousands of spectators packed about the huge oval centered their interest in the actual contestants—athletes from nearly thirty nations who paraded the arena and tomorrow will begin their tests of strength and skill.

VILLA INFORMS PRIEST HE'S DONE WITH POLITICS

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 14.—Francisco Villa and his men reached Tlahualilo, state of Durango, Thursday night. Tlahualilo is the place where it was reported Villa's men would be mustered out.

At Sacramento a priest boarded the train and talked to Villa relative to the Catholic party. General Martinez declared, but Villa replied he would not meddle in politics.

MAP OUT ROUTE FOR PLANE TRIP AROUND WORLD

Test Flight Over Sky Tracts to Be Made in Big Machine

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Plans are in active preparation for the first "round the world" aerial derby. It became known today. A special commission appointed by the Aero Club of America and the Aerial League of America, after covering most of the tentative route, has completed an organization for conducting the event.

A test flight of the entire route is in preparation, the start to be made from London in an improved Handley-Page airplane carrying ten passengers.

The tentative route for the air derby itself follows:

New York to Seattle 2297 miles; to Yokohama via Aleutian islands, 5415 miles; Shanghai, 1226 miles; Bangkok, 2595 miles; Karachi, India, via Hongkong and Delhi, 2663 miles; Rangoon, 1346 miles; Rome via Greece 1876 miles; Ireland (coast) via London and Paris, 1528 miles; New Foundland, 1875 miles; to New York, 2297 miles. Total distance traversed, 22,297 miles.

FEARS GERMANS WILL DIE OFF BY MILLIONS

BERLIN, Aug. 12.—(By The Associated Press.)—"I consider it inevitable that ten or fifteen million of our people will die out, as we no longer can provide for them because of the theft of our colonies, our merchant fleet and our possessions abroad. The destruction of our industries and the seizure of our natural resources" is the reply of Professor Max Von Gruener, noted hygienist, in refusing the request of his Munich colleagues that he sign an international appeal on behalf of German tubercular children.

Professor Von Gruener declares he finds it "incompatible, with German honor" to appeal to the very nations who he charges "imposed the hunger blockade which undermined the vitality of the German people."

NEGRO FALLS 12 STORIES, LIVES TO COLLECT CASH

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14.—Napoleon Brooks, negro cement worker who fell from the twelfth story of a building under construction at Fresno April 2, 1920, was able to walk into the office of the state industrial accident commission today and receive $187.47 compensation and the first of weekly benefits of $20.33 to be paid until the termination of his disability. In the fall he sustained a fractured skull, a crushed right foot, fractured bones in several parts of the body and several broken ribs.

ARKANSAS CONGRESSMAN GETS DEMOCRATIC POST

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Representative W. A. Oldfield, of Arkansas, has been selected to take charge of the Democratic congressional campaign headquarters in New York, according to a statement by Chairman Flood of the congressional committee. The New York office as well as assisting congressional delegates in its districts will serve to keep the congressional committee in touch with the national Democratic committee.

WYOMING MAN IS GIVEN FEDERAL JOB IN BUFFALO

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Appointment of John B. Halbert, of Sheridan, Wyo., to be receiver of public monies at Buffalo, Wyo., was announced today.

COX ADDRESS WARM ATTACK ON OPPOSITION

G. O. P. Leaders Charged With Attempt to Trick American People

INTERESTS TRYING TO BUY CONTROL, CLAIM

Governor Says Millions and Millions Are Being Raised for Campaign

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 14.—Governor Cox today opened fire on his Republican opposition charging its leadership with "attempted trickery" of the American people in opposing the league of nations and with conducting a campaign "behind a smoke screen" to secure partisan spoils.

That "a powerful combination of interests is now attempting to buy government control," he also asserted, charging that "millions and millions were being raised in campaign contributions."

The governor loosed his attack in an address at the West Virginia Democratic convention. It was his first vigorous assault on the Republicans since he assumed the governorship in another address to the general public.

Although advocacy of the league of nations, which the governor declared "was the greatest movement of righteousness in the history of the world," was the main theme of his address, he also attacked again the Republican "senatorial oligarchy." The Democratic party, he asserted, was a "constructive, progressive, economic service in peace," and promise definitely a saving of $2,000,000,000 annually in government expenses.

"A grave responsibility rests with the Democratic party," said Governor Cox. "It must render good faith in behalf of the nation and the soldiers of the war and to our allies who helped to achieve victory. It is not a partisan affair. The campaign this year is not a contest for the triumph of a political party. It is purely a matter of concluding a duty to civilization, and doing it as quickly as prudent consideration of our country's interests suggest."

Leadership in a great moral question has been given to the Democracy, for the simple reason that the senatorial oligarchy, which for the time being has assumed the mantle of the Republican party, has abandoned the idealism of other days.

WARS COME EASILY.

"We shall not alone make appeal to the electorate by contrasting the rules of economic thought that have prevailed in the past, but we shall call attention to the delinquent attitude in which this country has been placed by the senatorial oligarchy. It is purely a matter of concluding a duty to civilization, and doing it as quickly as prudent consideration of our country's interests suggest."

Leadership in a great moral question has been given to the Democracy, for the simple reason that the senatorial oligarchy, which for the time being has assumed the mantle of the Republican party, has abandoned the idealism of other days.

WARS COME EASILY.

"We shall not alone make appeal to the electorate by contrasting the rules of economic thought that have prevailed in the past, but we shall call attention to the delinquent attitude in which this country has been placed by the senatorial oligarchy. It is purely a matter of concluding a duty to civilization, and doing it as quickly as prudent consideration of our country's interests suggest."

Leadership in a great moral question has been given to the Democracy, for the simple reason that the senatorial oligarchy, which for the time being has assumed the mantle of the Republican party, has abandoned the idealism of other days.

WARS COME EASILY.

"We shall not alone make appeal to the electorate by contrasting the rules of economic thought that have prevailed in the past, but we shall call attention to the delinquent attitude in which this country has been placed by the senatorial oligarchy. It is purely a matter of concluding a duty to civilization, and doing it as quickly as prudent consideration of our country's interests suggest."

Leadership in a great moral question has been given to the Democracy, for the simple reason that the senatorial oligarchy, which for the time being has assumed the mantle of the Republican party, has abandoned the idealism of other days.

WARS COME EASILY.

"We shall not alone make appeal to the electorate by contrasting the rules of economic thought that have prevailed in the past, but we shall call attention to the delinquent attitude in which this country has been placed by the senatorial oligarchy. It is purely a matter of concluding a duty to civilization, and doing it as quickly as prudent consideration of our country's interests suggest."

Leadership in a great moral question has been given to the Democracy, for the simple reason that the senatorial oligarchy, which for the time being has assumed the mantle of the Republican party, has abandoned the idealism of other days.

WARS COME EASILY.

"We shall not alone make appeal to the electorate by contrasting the rules of economic thought that have prevailed in the past, but we shall call attention to the delinquent attitude in which this country has been placed by the senatorial oligarchy. It is purely a matter of concluding a duty to civilization, and doing it as quickly as prudent consideration of our country's interests suggest."

Leadership in a great moral question has been given to the Democracy, for the simple reason that the senatorial oligarchy, which for the time being has assumed the mantle of the Republican party, has abandoned the idealism of other days.

WARS COME EASILY.

"We shall not alone make appeal to the electorate by contrasting the rules of economic thought that have prevailed in the past, but we shall call attention to the delinquent attitude in which this country has been placed by the senatorial oligarchy. It is purely a matter of concluding a duty to civilization, and doing it as quickly as prudent consideration of our country's interests suggest."

Leadership in a great moral question has been given to the Democracy, for the simple reason that the senatorial oligarchy, which for the time being has assumed the mantle of the Republican party, has abandoned the idealism of other days.

WARS COME EASILY.

"We shall not alone make appeal to the electorate by contrasting the rules of economic thought that have prevailed in the past, but we shall call attention to the delinquent attitude in which this country has been placed by the senatorial oligarchy. It is purely a matter of concluding a duty to civilization, and doing it as quickly as prudent consideration of our country's interests suggest."

Leadership in a great moral question has been given to the Democracy, for the simple reason that the senatorial oligarchy, which for the time being has assumed the mantle of the Republican party, has abandoned the idealism of other days.

WARS COME EASILY.

"We shall not alone make appeal to the electorate by contrasting the rules of economic thought that have prevailed in the past, but we shall call attention to the delinquent attitude in which this country has been placed by the senatorial oligarchy. It is purely a matter of concluding a duty to civilization, and doing it as quickly as prudent consideration of our country's interests suggest."

Leadership in a great moral question has been given to the Democracy, for the simple reason that the senatorial oligarchy, which for the time being has assumed the mantle of the Republican party, has abandoned the idealism of other days.

WARS COME EASILY.

"We shall not alone make appeal to the electorate by contrasting the rules of economic thought that have prevailed in the past, but we shall call attention to the delinquent attitude in which this country has been placed by the senatorial oligarchy. It is purely a matter of concluding a duty to civilization, and doing it as quickly as prudent consideration of our country's interests suggest."

Leadership in a great moral question has been given to the Democracy, for the simple reason that the senatorial oligarchy, which for the time being has assumed the mantle of the Republican party, has abandoned the idealism of other days.

NEWSPAPERS IN ATHENS WRECKED BY ANGRY MOB

ATHENS, Aug. 13.—The news of the attempted assassination of Premier Venizelos in Paris has resulted in excesses such as the wrecking of plants of opposition newspapers and the residence of former Premier Skouloudis. Many of the opposition leaders were arrested.

M. Iragoumis, former Greek minister to Petrograd, was shot dead while trying to escape from a military escort.

JOINT SCALE COMMITTEE AT WORK ON WAGE

Miners to Present Proposition for Increased Wages at Later Session

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 14.—The joint scale committee of miners and operators in the central competitive bituminous coal field, meeting at the request of President Wilson to consider the question of re-opening the wage scale paid day or month laborers, re-convened this morning at 10 o'clock and adjourned until five p. m. when the miners expect to present their proposition for increased wages.

LEWIS SPEAKS.

John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, addressed this morning's meeting on behalf of the miners. He discussed the general situation in the coal industry, pointing out that some relief measures were necessary for the stabilization of wages and the welfare of the miners.

The three officers of the company held are Charles M. Brightwell, president and treasurer, Raymond Meyers, office manager, and Fred Meyers, sales agent. The men were held on technical charges of larceny of $500 from persons unknown.

WIFE HAS MONEY.

Referring to the possible transfer of large sums by Ponzi to his wife, Mr. Brightwell said:

"It can be taken away from her and it will be. It does not belong to her. It is money that was obtained under fraudulent pretense to be used for fraudulent purposes."

Ponzi withheld from his wife the news of his surrender by his bondsmen. Mrs. Ponzi re-asserted her faith in "his honesty," she said, "and I will stay by him to the end."

The second of the two petitions that have been filed to have Ponzi adjudged bankrupt was pending in the federal court today.

A petition for a receiver to administer Ponzi's affairs also has been filed.

BOOKS EXAMINED.

Examination of the books of the Hanover Trust company was continued today by members of Bank Commissioner Allen's staff. Mr. Allen in a statement said:

"Nothing has developed so far to lead me to believe that the depositors will lose one dollar. The Hanover Trust company is the only trust company in New England that is involved."

The financial district was concerned yesterday when a small run was made on several trust companies, but there was no indication today of a continuance of withdrawals.

Mr. Allen has caused the state seal to be placed on all safe deposit boxes in the Hanover Trust company used by Ponzi or officers or employees of the bank as a precaution against the possible removal of securities.

MADE BIG CLAIMS.

The Old Colony Exchange company was organized July 10. It offered to pay 100 per cent in six months on investments and claimed to be dealing in foreign merchandise. Attorney-General Allen said that he knew that the company had sent large sums abroad.

The office was closed after a frenzied run yesterday. Doors and windows were smashed, threats were made against Brightwell and a detail of police was sent to the office.

INDIANA GAINS LITTLE BY NEW CENSUS REPORT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Indiana, ninth state of the union in point of population ten years ago, now has 2,245,544 people within her borders, the census bureau announced today. In the ten years since 1910 there was an increase of 229,668 in her population, making her growth 10.2 per cent over the population ten years ago, which was 2,015,876.

Indiana, organized as a territory in 1800, held 21st rank among the states and territories in the census that year. Since then the state declined gradually until 1910 when the rate was 7.3 per cent, the smallest in the history of the state.

The largest municipal growth in population was in the decade 1850-1860 when the increase was 362,012 and the state passed the million mark. The two million mark was passed in the decade 1880-1890.

JAP NOTE ON SAKHALIN RECEIVED IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Japan's reply to the American note protesting against Japanese occupation of the island of Sakhalin received today at the state department.

The note was described as a lengthy one and it was understood that it went thoroughly into the whole question of the Japanese policy in Siberia. The document, together with the original American note, will be made public next week.

JAP NOTE ON SAKHALIN RECEIVED IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Japan's reply to the American note protesting against Japanese occupation of the island of Sakhalin received today at the state department.

The note was described as a lengthy one and it was understood that it went thoroughly into the whole question of the Japanese policy in Siberia. The document, together with the original American note, will be made public next week.

JAP NOTE ON SAKHALIN RECEIVED IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Japan's reply to the American note protesting against Japanese occupation of the island of Sakhalin received today at the state department.

The note was described as a lengthy one and it was understood that it went thoroughly into the whole question of the Japanese policy in Siberia. The document, together with the original American note, will be made public next week.

GET RICH QUICK EXPERT'S WIFE TO LOSE MONEY

State Authorities Hold Her Wealth Was Obtained By Illegal Means

MRS. PONZI DECLARES SHE WILL STICK TO HIM

Officials Determined Sensational Financier Shall Remain in Jail

BOSTON, Aug. 14.—Bank Commissioner Joseph C. Allen today took charge of the affairs of the Polish Industrial association conducting a private bank at 37 Cross street in this city. Henry H. Chmielnicki, president of the Hanover Trust company, the chief beneficiary of Charles Ponzi, which was closed last Wednesday by the commissioner, is president of the industrial association.

Bank Commissioner Allen said that the loans of the association were either bad or of doubtful value and there was virtually no cash left. He said its affairs were hopelessly interwoven with those of the Ponzi company.

The capital of the association is $18,775 and it had deposits of about $350,000.

BREAKFAST IN JAIL.

Ponzi ate his breakfast in the Middlesex county jail in East Cambridge, a prisoner of the government in default of $25,000 bonds.

Three officers of the Old Colony Foreign Exchange company, a rival concern of Ponzi's Securities Exchange company, were prisoners of the commonwealth yesterday under a blanket warrant charging them with larceny of $500 from persons unknown.

CANT GET OUT.

Ponzi, whose bondsman surrendered him yesterday, was confronted with the alternative of remaining in federal custody or, if he could find another bondsman, of being arrested again by a warrant charging him with larceny in 53 counts, totaling $24,000.

The authorities were said to be determined that the sensational financier should remain in custody to preserve for his creditors whatever assets he may have and because of the fear that he might seek to dissipate the funds of the Ponzi company.

"I am inclined to believe that a great deal of money collected by Ponzi and his agents has been deposited in the names of others," Mr. Priddy said.

WIFE HAS MONEY.

Referring to the possible transfer of large sums by Ponzi to his wife, Mr. Priddy said:

"It can be taken away from her and it will be. It does not belong to her. It is money that was obtained under fraudulent pretense to be used for fraudulent purposes."

Ponzi withheld from his wife the news of his surrender by his bondsmen. Mrs. Ponzi re-asserted her faith in "his honesty," she said, "and I will stay by him to the end."

The second of the two petitions that have been filed to have Ponzi adjudged bankrupt was pending in the federal court today.

A petition for a receiver to administer Ponzi's affairs also has been filed.

BOOKS EXAMINED.

Examination of the books of the Hanover Trust company was continued today by members of Bank Commissioner Allen's staff. Mr. Allen in a statement said:

"Nothing has developed so far to lead me to believe that the depositors will lose one dollar. The Hanover Trust company is the only trust company in New England that is involved."

The financial district was concerned yesterday when a small run was made on several trust companies, but there was no indication today of a continuance of withdrawals.

Mr. Allen has caused the state seal to be placed on all safe deposit boxes in the Hanover Trust company used by Ponzi or officers or employees of the bank as a precaution against the possible removal of securities.

MADE BIG CLAIMS.

The Old Colony Exchange company was organized July 10. It offered to pay 100 per cent in six months on investments and claimed to be dealing in foreign merchandise. Attorney-General Allen said that he knew that the company had sent large sums abroad.

The office was closed after a frenzied run yesterday. Doors and windows were smashed, threats were made against Brightwell and a detail of police was sent to the office.

WIFE HAS MONEY.

Referring to the possible transfer of large sums by Ponzi to his wife, Mr. Priddy said:

"It can be taken away from her and it will be. It does not belong to her. It is money that was obtained under fraudulent pretense to be used for fraudulent purposes."

Ponzi withheld from his wife the news of his surrender by his bondsmen. Mrs. Ponzi re-asserted her faith in "his honesty," she said, "and I will stay by him to the end."

The second of the two petitions that have been filed to have Ponzi adjudged bankrupt was pending in the federal court today.

A petition for a receiver to administer Ponzi's affairs also has been filed.

BOOKS EXAMINED.

Examination of the books of the Hanover Trust company was continued today by members of Bank Commissioner Allen's staff. Mr. Allen in a statement said:

"Nothing has developed so far to lead me to believe that the depositors will lose one dollar. The Hanover Trust company is the only trust company in New England that is involved."

The financial district was concerned yesterday when a small run was made on several trust companies, but there was no indication today of a continuance of withdrawals.

Mr. Allen has caused the state seal to be placed on all safe deposit boxes in the Hanover Trust company used by Ponzi or officers or employees of the bank as a precaution against the possible removal of securities.

MADE BIG CLAIMS.

The Old Colony Exchange company was organized July 10. It offered to pay 100 per cent in six months on investments and claimed to be dealing in foreign merchandise. Attorney-General Allen said that he knew that the company had sent large sums abroad.

The office was closed after a frenzied run yesterday. Doors and windows were smashed, threats were made against Brightwell and a detail of police was sent to the office.

WIFE HAS MONEY.

Referring to the possible transfer of large sums by Ponzi to his wife, Mr. Priddy said:

"It can be taken away from her and it will be. It does not belong to her. It is money that was obtained under fraudulent pretense to be used for fraudulent purposes."

Ponzi withheld from his wife the news of his surrender by his bondsmen. Mrs. Ponzi re-asserted her faith in "his honesty," she said, "and I will stay by him to the end."

The second of the two petitions that have been filed to have Ponzi adjudged bankrupt was pending in the federal court today.

A petition for a receiver to administer Ponzi's affairs also has been filed.

BOOKS EXAMINED.

Examination of the books of the Hanover Trust company was continued today by members of Bank Commissioner Allen's staff. Mr. Allen in a statement said:

"Nothing has developed so far to lead me to believe that the depositors will lose one dollar. The Hanover Trust company is the only trust company in New England that is involved."

The financial district was concerned yesterday when a small run was made on several trust companies, but there was no indication today of a continuance of withdrawals.

Mr. Allen has caused the state seal to be placed on all safe deposit boxes in the Hanover Trust company used by Ponzi or officers or employees of the bank as a precaution against the possible removal of securities.

MADE BIG CLAIMS.

The Old Colony Exchange company was organized July 10. It offered to pay 100 per cent in six months on investments and claimed to be dealing in foreign merchandise. Attorney-General Allen said that he knew that the company had sent large sums abroad.

The office was closed after a frenzied run yesterday. Doors and windows were smashed, threats were made against Brightwell and a detail of police was sent to the office.

WIFE HAS MONEY.

Referring to the possible transfer of large sums by Ponzi to his wife, Mr. Priddy said:

"It can be taken away from her and it will be. It does not belong to her. It is money that was obtained under fraudulent pretense to be used for fraudulent purposes."

Ponzi withheld from his wife the news of his surrender by his bondsmen. Mrs. Ponzi re-asserted her faith in "his honesty," she said, "and I will stay by him to the end."

The second of the two petitions that have been filed to have Ponzi adjudged bankrupt was pending in the federal court today.

A petition for a receiver to administer Ponzi's affairs also has been filed.

BOOKS EXAMINED.

Examination of the books of the Hanover Trust company was continued today by members of Bank Commissioner Allen's staff. Mr. Allen in a statement said:

"Nothing has developed so far to lead me to believe that the depositors will lose one dollar. The Hanover Trust company is the only trust company in New England that is involved."

The financial district was concerned yesterday when a small run was made on several trust companies, but there was no indication today of a continuance of withdrawals.

Mr. Allen has caused the state seal to be placed on all safe deposit boxes in the Hanover Trust company used by Ponzi or officers or employees of the bank as a precaution against the possible removal of securities.

MADE BIG CLAIMS.

The Old Colony Exchange company was organized July 10. It offered to pay 100 per cent in six months on investments and claimed to be dealing in foreign merchandise. Attorney-General Allen said that he knew that the company had sent large sums abroad.

The office was closed after a frenzied run yesterday. Doors and windows were smashed, threats were made against Brightwell and a detail of police was sent to the office.

WIFE HAS MONEY.

Referring to the possible transfer of large sums by Ponzi to his wife, Mr. Priddy said:

"It can be taken away from her and it will be. It does not belong to her. It is money that was obtained under fraudulent pretense to be used for fraudulent purposes."

Ponzi withheld from his wife the news of his surrender by his bondsmen. Mrs. Ponzi re-asserted her faith in "his honesty," she said, "and I will stay by him to the end."

The second of the two petitions that have been filed to have Ponzi adjudged bankrupt was pending in the federal court today.

A petition for a receiver to administer Ponzi's affairs also has been filed.

BOOKS EXAMINED.

Examination of the books of the Hanover Trust company was continued today by members of Bank Commissioner Allen's staff. Mr. Allen in a statement said:

"Nothing has developed so far to lead me to believe that the depositors will lose one dollar. The Hanover Trust company is the only trust company in New England that is involved."

The financial district was concerned yesterday when a small run was made on several trust companies, but there was no indication today of a continuance of withdrawals.

Mr. Allen has caused the state seal to be placed on all safe deposit boxes in the Hanover Trust company used by Ponzi or officers or employees of the bank as a precaution against the possible removal of securities.

MADE BIG CLAIMS.

The Old Colony Exchange company was organized July 10. It offered to pay 100 per cent in six months on investments and claimed to be dealing in foreign merchandise. Attorney-General Allen said that he knew that the company had sent large sums abroad.

The office was closed after a frenzied run yesterday. Doors and windows were smashed, threats were made against Brightwell and a detail of police was sent to the office.

WIFE HAS MONEY.

Referring to the possible transfer of large sums by Ponzi to his wife, Mr. Priddy said:

"It can be taken away from her and it will be. It does not belong to her. It is money that was obtained under fraudulent pretense to be used for fraudulent purposes."

Ponzi withheld from his wife the news of his surrender by his bondsmen. Mrs. Ponzi re-asserted her faith in "his honesty," she said, "and I will stay by him to the end."

The second of the two petitions that have been filed to have Ponzi adjudged bankrupt was pending in the federal court today.

A petition for a receiver to administer Ponzi's affairs also has been filed.

BOOKS EXAMINED.

Examination of the books of the Hanover Trust company was continued today by members of Bank Commissioner Allen's staff. Mr. Allen in a statement said:

"Nothing has developed so far to lead me to believe that the depositors will lose one dollar. The Hanover Trust company is the only trust company in New England that is involved."

The financial district was concerned yesterday when a small run was made on several trust companies, but there was no indication today of a continuance of withdrawals.

Mr. Allen has caused the state seal to be placed on all safe deposit boxes in the Hanover Trust company used by Ponzi or officers or employees of the bank as a precaution against the possible removal of securities.

MADE BIG CLAIMS.

The Old Colony Exchange company was organized July 10. It offered to pay 100 per cent in six months on investments and claimed to be dealing in foreign merchandise. Attorney-General Allen said that he knew that the company had sent large sums abroad.

The office was closed after a frenzied run yesterday. Doors and windows were smashed, threats were made against Brightwell and a detail of police was sent to the office.

WIFE HAS MONEY.

Referring to the possible transfer of large sums by Ponzi to his wife, Mr. Priddy said:

"It can be taken away from her and it will be. It does not belong to her. It is money that was obtained under fraudulent pretense to be used for fraudulent purposes."

Ponzi withheld from his wife the news of his surrender by his bondsmen. Mrs. Ponzi re-asserted her faith in "his honesty," she said, "and I will stay by him to the end."

The second of the two petitions that have been filed to have Ponzi adjudged bankrupt was pending in the federal court today.

A petition for a receiver to administer Ponzi's affairs also has been filed.

BOOKS EXAMINED.

Examination of the books of the Hanover Trust company was continued today by members of Bank Commissioner Allen's staff. Mr. Allen in a statement said:

"Nothing has developed so far to lead me to believe that the depositors will lose one dollar. The Hanover Trust company is the only trust company in New England that is involved."

The financial district was concerned yesterday when a small run was made on several trust companies, but there was no indication today of a continuance of withdrawals.

Mr. Allen has caused the state seal to be placed on all safe deposit boxes in the Hanover Trust company used by Ponzi or officers or employees of the bank as a precaution against the possible removal of securities.

MADE BIG CLAIMS.

The Old Colony Exchange company was organized July 10. It offered to pay 100 per cent in six months on investments and claimed to be dealing in foreign merchandise. Attorney-General Allen said that he knew that the company had sent large sums abroad.

The office was closed after a frenzied run yesterday. Doors and windows were smashed, threats were made against Brightwell and a detail of police was sent to the office.

VETERAN OF 22 WOUNDS DIES IN THUNDER STORM

PATERSON, N. J., Aug. 1